2012 Annual Safety Test

1. All individuals will take appropriate measures when handling confidential information.
   a. Faxed or photocopied.
   b. Stored, transported or disposed of.
   c. Printed on the network or downloaded.
   d. All of the above

2. A Code Grey has been called. Which of the following should be considered "suspicious" items?
   a. A briefcase in an empty elevator.
   b. A cardboard box taped closed with duct tape sitting by an empty table in the cafeteria.
   c. A suitcase left in the lobby outside Patient Access Services
   d. All of the above.

3. You are on the third floor of the West wing of the Medical Center when you hear a Code Pink called over the intercom and the fire doors ten feet behind you close. A woman in scrubs wearing a nametag with a blue stripe on the bottom is pushing a wheelchair towards you with a child in it. You should:
   a. Go back and hold the door open so they can get through the door easily.
   b. Contact security immediately, giving them the location and description of the woman and child.
   c. You hear people behind you, closer to the door so you hurry on to where you are going and let them hold the door for the woman.
   d. Give the woman directions to the CMC as she is obviously lost

4. An escort service is available for employees, patients or visitors.
   a. True
   b. False

5. Increasing the distance between you and a source of radiation increases your exposure to the radiation.
   a. True
   b. False

6. Protected Health Information is defined as “Individually identifiable health information electronically transmitted or maintained by a covered entity”.
   a. True
   b. False
7. If the Emergency Operations plan is put into action the paging operator will announce over the intercom system.

   a. Code Red
   b. Code Triage
   c. Code Grey
   d. Code Pink

8. Incidents of child abuse, abuse of disabled adults/elders, and/or intimate partner violence should be reported to GHSU Social Work.

   a. True
   b. False

9. Wall outlets that are connected to the emergency power supply are coded with the color:

   a. Yellow
   b. Blue
   c. Red
   d. Green

10. HIPAA stands for Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act:

    a. True
    b. False

11. You should do all of the following if a piece of patient equipment is not working properly EXCEPT:

    a. Remove the piece of equipment from use immediately
    b. Attach a sign that reads “broken” to the equipment
    c. Alert the Charge Nurse, your instructor, and/or preceptor
    d. Identify a piece of equipment that can replace the malfunctioning device.

12. You are accompanying a young patient and his mother to the MRI area. What items are safe to have in the MRI room?

    a. An office chair for Mom to sit on.
    b. The Code Blue cart
    c. Hair clips in the child's hair
    d. No equipment, objects or persons are allowed in the MRI exam room unless approved by the MRI Technician

13. If you hear Code Black announced over the intercom, you know there has been an active shooter reported in the facility.

    a. True
    b. False
14. If you are caring for patients and a fire starts in another area of the hospital what is your most reasonable response?
   a. Evacuate out the nearest fire exit
   b. Start evacuating patients
   c. Continue to care for patients while reviewing at least two ways you could evacuate patients if notified to do so

15. You are taking a meal tray to Mr. Jones who is in Contact Isolation Precautions. What Protective Equipment (PPE) must you wear to take the tray into his room?
   a. Gown and gloves
   b. Mask and gloves
   c. Gloves
   d. You don’t need to wear any PPE

16. Latex allergy reactions are always mild and do not last long.
   a. True
   b. False

17. You walk into Mr. Smith’s room and find his wife asleep in a chair with a lit cigarette in her hand, smoke filling the air, and ashes dropping into her purse on the floor. According to RACE, your immediate response is to:
   a. Reach for the purse and douse it with water
   b. Run and find the charge nurse
   c. Remove Mr. And Mrs. Smith from the room
   d. Remain calm

18. If you are stuck in an elevator, you should:
   a. Yell for help as loudly as possible
   b. Try to force the doors open so you can climb out
   c. Use the elevator phone to call for help and wait calmly for help to arrive d. Use the elevator phone to call for help and then bang on the door as loudly as possible, trying to make it open. When the doors open up a little, jump out.

19. What are the four principles of Patient Family Centered Care?
   a. Responsibility, Communication, Leadership, Loyalty
   b. Communication, Dignity, Excellence, Responsibility
   c. Respect, Communication, Dignity, Collaboration
   d. Dignity and Respect, Information Sharing, Participation, Collaboration

20. Examples of Protected Health Information (PHI) are:
   a. Name
   b. Driver’s license number
   c. Test Results
   d. All of the above